R.E.A.C.H represents the interests of the community and its citizens and encourages participation in neighborhoods to improve the quality of life in our city. R.E.A.C.H meets the 1st Monday of each month at 6:00 p.m. in the Trellis Hall (6237 Fountain Square Drive). Visit www.citrusheights.net or call (916)725-2448 to find out more about the neighborhood group that serves in your area.

From the desk of the Chief

The term community-oriented policing refers to a philosophy that is deeply embedded in the men and women of the Citrus Heights Police Department. Community policing is defined as law enforcement that promotes organizational strategies, which support the systematic use of partnerships and problem-solving techniques, to proactively address the immediate conditions that give rise to public safety issues such as crime, social disorder, and fear of crime.

The focus of community-oriented policing is not just on police response, but on preventing crime and resolving community problems. The philosophy is based on the belief that the police and the community must work together as partners to solve problems affecting our community. Effective community-oriented policing has a positive impact on crime reduction and enhances the quality of life in our city.

The ways in which the Citrus Heights Police Department interacts with the community are many and varied. One of our most rewarding endeavors has been our Problem-Oriented Policing (POP) Officers attending each of the ten monthly neighborhood association meetings in the city. This provides each individual neighborhood community familiar law enforcement contacts with whom they have established personal relationships. These relationships facilitate open communication and consistency. In 2015, we further enhanced this effort by having members of various units within the police department provide presentations for each of the neighborhood associations. This affords citizens the opportunity to get to know additional police personnel, learn about the many facets of law enforcement, and see how various department units function.

In the month of February, members from our department's Traffic Unit visited each of the neighborhood association meetings and provided presentations. Following each presentation, our motor team answered traffic related questions from the residents. After the meeting, residents took pictures with the traffic team, and got an up-close look at the police motorcycles and associated equipment.

Department units that will be highlighted during the monthly neighborhood associations through the end of the year are as follows:

- April: SWAT
- June: Special Investigations Unit (Gang/Drugs)
- August: K-9 Officers
- October: Police Dispatchers
- November: Holiday Safety Awareness

From the desk of the Chief

Another significant asset to the police department in communicating with our residents is CHPD's social media program. Social media platforms allow department staff to quickly disseminate information including important crime prevention tips, personnel changes within the organization, upcoming events, and so much more. Our media team is actively involved in social media programs such as Twitter and Nextdoor.com. Additionally, citizens can opt in to our emergency notification program, Citizen Alert, to receive real time community messages. We encourage the community to engage in these social media platforms to further strengthen the communication and connection between law enforcement and citizens. This partnership enables us to work more closely together which enhances the safety and well-being of everyone.

The Citrus Heights Police Department greatly values the strong relationships we have developed within our community. We constantly strive to enhance and improve the methods by which we interact and relate with those we serve. The support and collaboration of our citizens are the bedrock upon which we have continuously improved the quality of life in this community. The upcoming year will undoubtedly provide additional opportunities to further evolve our policing model. As always, your input and feedback are valued components of that endeavor.

Earth Day is April 22, 2015 — How you can get involved!

Earth Day

Earth Day is an annual global event dedicated to educating the public about environmental issues. The event was established in 1970 and each year, approximately 192 countries worldwide hold events to demonstrate support for environmental protection. Each of us can get involved in Earth Day by educating ourselves on how we can help spur the green movement.

What can you do? Here is a list of 10 simple things you can do to join in on Earth Day:

- 1) Rather than purchasing disposable plastic water bottles, start carrying a reusable/refillable one.
- 2) Turn off all lights, appliances, and electronics when not in use.
- 3) Bring your own reusable mug or tumbler when you go out for coffee or tea.
- 4) Buy recycled or reusable products whenever possible.
- 5) Compost your food/organic waste.
- 6) Recycle your paper, plastic, glass and electronic products.
- 7) At home, adjust your thermostat so temperatures are higher in the summer and lower in the winter to help conserve energy.
- 8) Buy local, sustainably produced food.
- 9) Replace incandescent bulbs with fluorescent bulbs which are more energy efficient.
- 10) Whenever possible, walk or ride your bike to destinations or take transit.

Everyone can help and everyone can get involved. All it takes is making some minor changes or adjustments to your normal everyday activities. These small changes can make a BIG difference!

Citrus Heights Community Center

The center is at 4806 events to date since opening in 2010. We are currently at the end of the Crab Season Fundraisers and looking forward to a fish free parking lot. This has been a very successful season based upon some of the updates we have received from our clients. New staff is scheduled to begin on March 23rd and we are looking forward to a full crew again. With the volume of clients and events and the janitorial work for the Campus and the Police Department each set of hands is very important. Once everyone is on board we will introduce them all to staff. New staff will consist of one attendant and three aides coming on. Finally interior painting is scheduled for the last Monday and Tuesday in March; quarterly window washing the 23rd and monthly main hall carpet cleaning.

Rental Facilities: There are several options of available spaces at affordable prices for your next gathering. For more information or availability of the facility, please call (916) 727-5400 or send an email to dcarpenter@citrusheights.net.

Sylvan Community Center

The Sylvan Center continues to be in use daily by neighborhood organizations, private groups and local service clubs. Currently the only open rental days available for new events are a few Saturdays per month. Staff will be presenting during a study session in April to the City Council a revised rental and deposit fee schedule designed to allow staff better control over renters and facility users who leave the building dirty following their events. To check for availability and pricing, call (916) 727-5400 or email sylvancommunitycenter@citrusheights.net.

Building Safety Month is Coming...

Building Safety Month is a public awareness campaign offered each year to help individuals, families, and businesses understand what it takes to create and sustain safe and sustainable structures. The campaign reinforces the need for adoption of modern model building codes, a strong and efficient system of code enforcement and a well-trained, professional workforce to maintain the system. There are a total of four weeks all with a different theme/focus:

- ◆ Week 1: Don't Get Burned May 4th-10th
- ◆ Week 2: Bounce Back Faster From Disaster May 11th-17th
- ◆ Week 3: Water Safe, Water Smart May 18th-24th
- ◆ Week 4: Save Energy May 25th-31st

An informative display will be located in City Hall during Building Safety Month with bulletins, brochures, and small giveaways. The building department will host 2 events, a kick-off and send off. If you are interested in receiving the weekly bulletin's and games for a chance to win a prize, having a speaker come and talk to a group about topics related to Building Safety, joining in a free event with refreshments and raffle or just want to learn more contact:

History and Arts Commission and Rotary Club Team up to build 20 Little Free Libraries in Citrus Heights

CITRUS HEIGHTS, California – The Citrus Heights Rotary Club in collaboration with the City of Citrus Heights History and Arts Commission will install 20 “Little Free Libraries” in Citrus Heights from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., Saturday, April 11th. Volunteers will begin at the Stock Ranch Preserve (behind Costco and Wal-Mart at 7000 Auburn Boulevard) and end with the final installation and a volunteer picnic at Van Maren Park (Stock Ranch Road/Fountain Square Drive).

A “Little Free Library” is a small, free-standing lending library/neighborhood book exchange, stewarded by a business, neighborhood, individual/family or a community group. Books are always a gift to the reader under the Little Free Library (<http://littlefreelibrary.org>) founding principles of “take a book/return a book.”

The Citrus Heights Little Free Library effort is spearheaded by Jessica Mang, Citrus Heights History and Arts Commissioner and current Citrus Heights Rotary Club President. Many community partners have made this project possible. The lending libraries were built by construction management students from San Juan High School and are modeled after the city’s original Sylvan Schoolhouse built in 1862 (currently located at 7011 Sylvan Road). Sylvan Library is donating books to stock the libraries and Home Depot and Lowes donated the construction materials. Local business and community groups are sponsoring the construction of the libraries and responsible for their up-keep and keeping them stocked with books.

The Citrus Heights Little Free Libraries will be located on 20 public sites throughout the City including Rusch Park, Stock Ranch Preserve, the Sylvan Community Center and the City’s new “green” parking lot adjacent to the Police Department on Fountain Square Drive. Visit the Little Libraries Web site and for more information on the Citrus Heights Little Free Library program and sponsorship opportunities.

Creek Protection Project to Begin in Early Summer

The Sacramento Area Sewer District (SASD), the region's sewer collection utility, will soon begin the second phase of construction on its Creek Protection Project. This project will repair, reroute, or modify sewer pipelines crossing creeks in order to minimize the risk of a sewer overflow into waterways.

Phase II work includes five sites, two of which are in Area 4 of Citrus Heights. Those two sites are both along Arcade Creek in the Stock Ranch Nature Preserve south of Costco and Walmart. Construction is anticipated to begin in early summer (although work on some sites may start later). SASD will coordinate with adjacent residents and property owners before and during construction. Most work will take place next to the waterways; however, minor impacts such as construction-related traffic, dust, and noise might be experienced. During construction, crews will be working diligently to minimize impacts to neighbors and natural resources.

SASD is committed to proactive and ongoing outreach with customers. As specific schedule details become available, they will be provided on the project website. Follow-up notices to adjacent residents will also be provided prior to starting work in each area.

Citrus Heights is divided into 11 Neighborhoods, and each Neighborhood is represented by a Neighborhood Association (Areas 7 & 8 are combined). Visit the City's website www.citrusheights.net and find out more information about how to get involved!

Did you know that the creation of the "Neighborhoods" was voted by the public as one of the Top 10 Accomplishments by the City of Citrus Heights since its incorporation in January 1997? You owe it to yourself and your family to find out why so many think the Neighborhood Associations are a wonderful benefit for residents of Citrus Heights!

The area groups usually meet once a month to solve neighborhood issues such as traffic or crime, to work on various projects, to host City information sessions, to network, have fun and much more.

All of the Neighborhoods are part of REACH (Residents' Empowerment Association of Citrus Heights). REACH is a coalition that consists of a Board of Directors composed of a representative from each neighborhood. REACH meets the 1st Monday of each month at 6:30 p.m. in Trellis Hall (6237 Fountain Square Drive - behind the General Services Building).
