Dignity Health Begins Construction of Medical Office Building

On Tuesday, May 23, Dignity Health hosted a groundbreaking ceremony to celebrate the start of construction on the new, state-of-the-art medical office building at 7115 Greenback Lane. The 68,000-square-foot, three-story outpatient facility will house 50 providers and 120 support staff offering a wide-range of medical services.

Development of the medical office building will diversify the Citrus Heights economy and add new long-term, high-paying jobs. In addition, the project will bring temporary construction-related jobs to the city. Furthermore, the public-private partnership will generate revenue through the ground lease.

The City Council unanimously approved the Medical Office Building and City Hall Project in fall 2015. As part of the project, the City purchased a new 35,000 square-foot facility at 6360 Fountain Square Drive. The new one-story City Hall opened in August 2016, consolidating City staff into one energy-efficient building.

From the Desk of the Chief...

In 1962, President John F. Kennedy proclaimed May 15th as National Peace Officer Memorial Day, and the week of May 15th, National Peace Officer Memorial Week.

Since 1791, there have been more than 21,000 peace officers killed in the line of duty in the United States. Last year, during 2016, there were 143 peace officers killed in the line of duty throughout our Nation. National Peace Officer Memorial Day is a solemn time for us to show reverence and memorialize peace officers killed in the line of duty in the United States.

In addition, California memorializes our California peace officers killed in the line of duty each year, during the first week of May. Typically, several hundred police officers, deputy sheriffs, CHP officers, and other policing agencies pay homage to our fallen by attending the solemn ceremonies. The tributes start Sunday evening with a candlelight vigil, followed on Monday with a formal enrollment ceremony to add new names of the fallen officers to the Memorial who were killed in the line of duty during the previous year.

Law enforcement traditions during the enrollment ceremony include a bagpipers march to escort the families of the fallen from the State Capitol to the Memorial, a rider-less horse ceremony, formal folding of the United States Flag, releasing of doves for each of the fallen officers, a 21-gun salute and the playing of Taps.

I have attended this Memorial annually for many years now, and this year I was proud to represent the Citrus Heights Police Department at the enrollment ceremony where we honored ten officers killed in California during 2016. Five other officers, killed during previous years who were not yet enrolled on the Memorial, were also honored.

As we close out the month of May, as well as another annual chapter of honoring our fallen peace officers, I want to thank all of our Citrus Heights community for your support of our brave men and women at CHPD who perform a dangerous and often chaotic job to keep us safe. Your constant expression of gratitude and advocacy of us is the best reward we at CHPD could possibly receive from those who we serve.

Citrus Heights Police Department

The Rotary Club of Sacramento has long appreciated and recognized the efforts of the public safety officers and employees that make our region a safer, healthier, and happier place. In show of their appreciation, they annually award the "Service above Self Public Safety Award" to that public safety person who has gone beyond his or her call of duty or professional responsibilities in demonstrating "Service above Self." This year's award recipient is Citrus Heights Police Department's David Jones. Detective Jones received his recognition at the District Attorney's annual Public Safety and Community Recognition Luncheon.

Detective Jones has been employed with the Citrus Heights Police Department (CHPD) since the agency's launch in 2006 and has over 17 total years of law enforcement experience. He is a dedicated officer whose primary focus both on and off duty is building strong relationships between the youth in our community and law enforcement.

He has been an active member of the Police Activities League (PAL) since its inception, a member of the leadership team, and has served on the board of directors. He has volunteered hundreds of hours of his own time to participate in PAL activities such as flag football, campouts, hikes, swimming, or just 'hanging out' with the kids. In addition, he organizes an annual police officer versus high school student basketball game.

Detective Jones saw an emerging need to become more involved with at-risk youth so he developed an 8-week youth leadership academy aimed at empowering youth to make better choices by promoting strong ethics and effective leadership skills.

Detective Jones is also a member of the Greater Sacramento Urban League Young Professionals Group. This group is one of like-minded people between the ages of 21 and 40 who volunteer their time to serve their communities in a variety of ways.

He resolutely believes that positive interactions with youth now make them far more likely to lead successful and productive lives. Detective Jones's recognition reminds us of the importance of giving back to our communities.

Congratulations, David Jones, on this well-deserved and prestigious recognition.

Emergency Calls

With the economy still recovering, many of us are trying to pinch pennies where we can. More citizens are switching their traditional “hard-line” phones for internet-based phones, named VoIP (Voice over Internet Protocol) phones which can cost considerably less, but may change how a VoIP 9-1-1 emergency phone call is routed. We believe that public education about how VoIP works when trying to reach emergency services is essential.

We call the traditional phones that plug into a phone jack a “hard-line” because there is actually a line of copper wiring that runs from your house and under the ground to a switch box operated by your provider. When you call “9-1-1” your call is routed to the nearest Emergency Dispatch Center where our Enhanced 911 database tells us the location of where you are calling from.

VoIP is marketed under many names and by several companies. Vonage was an early adopter and is still a very popular service. Comcast cable offers “Bundle Packages” where they include the cost of internet, cable TV, and your phone line (which is actually VoIP and not a hard-line) for one low monthly price. Magic Jack is sold on late night infomercials to people who want to make long distance or international calls very inexpensively. All these things are well and good for the pocketbook.

The danger, however, lies in the responsibility that falls in the consumer’s lap as far as emergency calls go. If you call 9-1-1 on one of these phones, your call will be routed to the closest emergency dispatch center from your billing address. Please note the term Billing Address, not necessarily where you are when you make the call.

In the case of Magic Jack, when you download the software you fill out a form stating where you want the base address to be. If your phone line is connected through your laptop, you could put your home address in as a base address, but then travel for business to Chicago. When you make a 9-1-1 call from that laptop, you would still get the Dispatch center for your home address thousands of miles away.

To greatly reduce concerns associated with emergency call routing, we recommend you follow these five steps:

1. When your VoIP service is set up, provide your accurate physical address to your provider. After your service is set up, call your local Dispatch center on the non-emergency line and ask them if it is a good time to test out your VoIP phone and see if it connects correctly. If the dispatcher says it is okay, call “9-1-1” from your VoIP phone and ask the dispatcher to confirm the information that appears on their Automatic Location Index screen and make sure it matches where you are.
2. Above all else If you move, change your billing address immediately. You never know if the very first phone call you ever have to make from your new home might be for help.
3. If your power goes out, or your internet connection goes down, be aware that your VoIP service may not work. Consider installing a backup power supply, or having a traditional phone line with a phone handset to plug into the wall. (Even if you do not pay for a phone service to your home, as long as you had traditional phone service at some point, you can plug in a handset and call 9-1-1). Some people keep a handset phone plugged into a wall jack for this purpose alone. Take a moment to test this and see if it works from your home.
4. Ensure that your children, babysitters, and visitors in your home know about your VoIP service and its 9-1-1 limitations, if any.
5. If you have any additional questions about whether your phone service is interconnected and how it is routed, contact your service provider.

Summer Celebrations & Fireworks Readiness

Sure, you've heard it before—the Fifth of July is the busiest shelter day EVERY YEAR thanks to fireworks!! Many think their pet won't escape or be frightened—but sensitive ears and noses, combined with loud noises and smoke can cause panic in a cat or dog!

- * Update license and microchip information before the end of June.
- * Pets should wear ID and license tags at all times.
- * Check fences and gates to make sure they're in good repair and closed to prevent escape.
- * Keep pets inside, away from windows and doors.
- * Play a radio or television to drown out the firework noise.
- * Pets get sick eating holiday foods or drinks at barbecues. Watch out for alcoholic drinks, grapes, nuts, chocolate, etc., that a pet can easily reach. Bones are hazardous causing choking or digestive issues. Give pets appropriate treats!
- * Never leave a pet unattended at an outdoor event. Keep pets away from open flames, fire pits, smoldering fireworks or barbecue grills.

Vacation Season!

Vacation season is here and many families will be traveling with pets from week-long excursions to short day trips to parks, rivers, beaches or mountains. Here are some things to consider before you take Spike or Sassy on a safari:

Check collars and leashes for wear and tear. If they're not in good condition, it could be time to replace them!

Are your pet's license and rabies tags attached? Most jurisdictions require license and rabies tags be displayed on their collar/harness at all times.

Heat affects pets differently—Dogs mostly pant and cats mostly expel heat through their paw pads but when overheated cats may also pant. Dogs may also sweat through their paws. Make sure to provide plenty of fresh, clean water and shade.

Asphalt and concrete heat up quickly and can burn or blister paws. Place your hand on the sidewalk. If it's too hot for YOU, it's too hot for your pet.

NEVER leave a pet alone in a HOT CAR! Not only is it the law in California, but summer heat can cause cars to reach temps in the 100's quickly! Cracking car windows and parking in the shade doesn't really work! Leave pets safe at home if you may have to leave them in the car.

Animal Services

Fireworks Safety for pets

Keep your pets secured INSIDE your home. Even dogs in fenced yards find ways to escape the scary sounds.

Give them a safe place to hide. Set up a comfortable room or crate in your house just for them.

Use ambient noise to mask the noise. A radio or TV playing comforting music works well.

Update their IDs & microchips (just in case).

Skip the celebration and stay home with them. Sometimes your presence makes all the difference.

Keep them busy. Treat toys, like Kongs, can help distract them during the display.

The Usual Suspects

Items often incorrectly
placed in the Recycle Cart

Polystyrene/Styrofoam goes in the trash.

Styrofoam is not currently recyclable in Citrus Heights. This type of waste belongs in the trash. Polystyrene includes many cups, plates, to-go food boxes, and packing peanuts.

To reduce waste, choose reusable plates and cups instead of Styrofoam!

Flimsy Plastics can be Recycled!

Flimsy plastics, such as sandwich bags, bubble wrap, and plastic grocery bags can be recycled by putting them in a plastic grocery bag. When the bag is full, tie it shut and put it in the blue Recycle cart for pick up.

These small plastic items are recyclable when contained in a plastic bag.

Snack Food Wrappers

Many bags and wrappers are not recyclable.

Chip bags, juice boxes, candy wrappers, and granola bar wrappers all get disposed in the trash cart.

COME JOIN YOUR NEIGHBORS!

Your Local Neighborhoods Help Make Citrus Heights a Great Place to Live!

Get involved and make a positive impact in your neighborhood!

Congratulations! As a resident of Citrus Heights, you are a member of a Neighborhood Association! You are invited to join your neighbors at their regular meetings, to volunteer in local events and make a difference in your community! The Neighborhoods are here to help you. Best of all, you don't have to pay dues or own your home in order to belong.

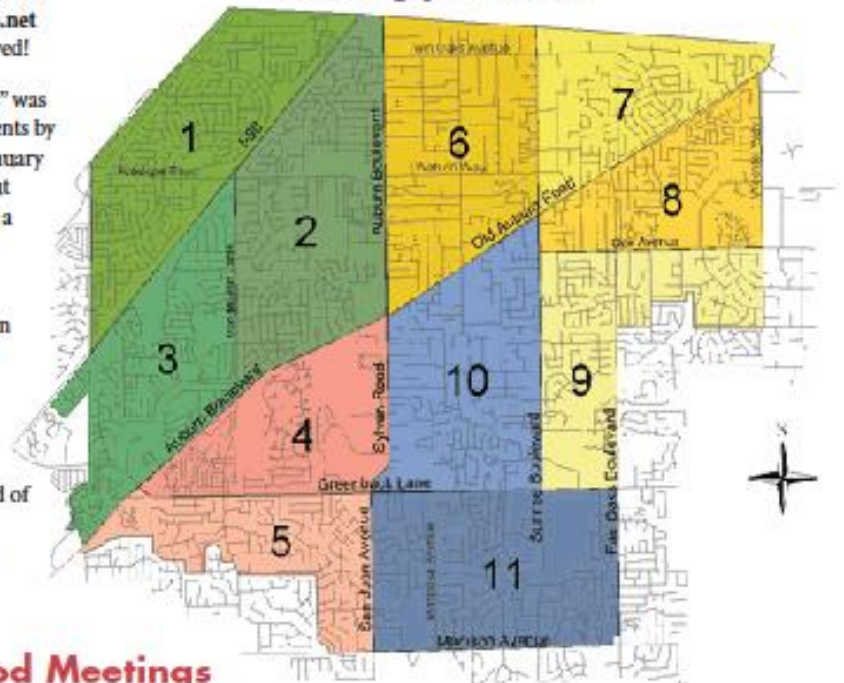

Anyone who lives, rents, or owns property or a business in Citrus Heights can get involved! Citrus Heights is divided into 11 Neighborhoods, and each Neighborhood is represented by a Neighborhood Association (Areas 7 & 8 are combined). Visit the City's website www.citrusheights.net and find out more information about how to get involved!

Did you know that the creation of the "Neighborhoods" was voted by the public as one of the Top 10 Accomplishments by the City of Citrus Heights since its incorporation in January 1997? You owe it to yourself and your family to find out why so many think the Neighborhood Associations are a wonderful benefit for residents of Citrus Heights!

The area groups usually meet once a month to solve neighborhood issues such as traffic or crime, to work on various projects, to host City information sessions, to network, have fun and much more.

All of the Neighborhoods are part of REACH (Residents' Empowerment Association of Citrus Heights). REACH is a coalition that consists of a Board of Directors composed of a representative from each neighborhood. REACH meets the 1st Monday of each month at 6:30 p.m. in City Hall Community Room (6360 Fountain Square Drive, Citrus Heights).

Check the map for the Neighborhood Group covering your area:

Citrus Heights First-Time Homebuyer Program

Need Help Purchasing a Home?

THE CITY CAN HELP!

The City's First-Time Homebuyer program provides low-interest loans of up to $40,000 to low-income homebuyers that may be used for a down payment and closing costs.

Low-Interest Loan

The low-interest loan is structured as a second mortgage. The loan will have a rate of 3.00%, a term of 30 years with no required monthly payments. The total sum of the loan, with interest, will be due at the end of the 30-year term, upon sale or transfer of the property or if the borrower no longer occupies the home as their primary residence. The borrower must contribute a minimum of $500 of their own funds towards the purchase of the home.

Get Started Today!

If you would like to learn more about the program or begin the application process today, contact a NeighborWorks Sacramento representative today. The HUD-certified counselors can assist you with achieving your homeownership goals.
